

I am a resident of the San Francisco bay area. My home is 100 miles from my work. The FM translator service operated by K-LOVE radio stations allows me to listen to the programming I want regardless of where geographically I need to be. Displacing this service with LPFM would be disappointing. K-LOVE broadcasts programming that serves both the public and my personal interests. Please do not allow LPFM to displace translator service.